MINIRAVES

Weather and Shade

Minraves Bali takes place at the beautiful Café del Mar, a premium beach club venue designed for an open-air experience.

As with most Bali venues, the event space includes a mix of sun-exposed and shaded areas throughout the venue.

Additional shaded areas have been arranged where possible, however not all areas of the venue are covered, including the main dancefloor which is open-air.

Weather in Bali can be warm and humid, particularly between 11am–2pm.

We recommend planning ahead for warm conditions.

MINIRAVES

What to Bring

- ◆ Hats or caps
- ◆ Sunscreen (SPF recommended)
- ◆ Comfortable, breathable clothing
- ◆ Water bottles to stay hydrated

On the day

- ◆ Shade is available in select areas of the venue
- ◆ Families are encouraged to take breaks as needed
 - ◆ Food and beverages are available for
 - ◆ Some activity zones may be outdoors

Parents/guardians are responsible for monitoring their children's comfort throughout the event.

MINIRAVES

Supervision and Water Safety

Miniraves Bali takes place at Café del Mar, an open oceanfront venue that includes pools, water features and outdoor areas.

- ◆ Children must be accompanied and actively supervised by a parent or legal guardian at all times
- ◆ Grown-ups are responsible for monitoring children around pools, water edges and all venue areas, particularly during busy moments
 - ◆ There are no designated child-only or fenced water zones
 - ◆ Families are encouraged to stay together, remain aware of their surroundings and move through the venue at a pace that feels comfortable

Miniraves is a shared experience, and close supervision helps ensure a safe and enjoyable day for everyone.

MINIRAVES

Sensory Note

Miniraves is a high energy event and not a quiet or low-stimulus environment.

- ◆ Music, movement and visual effects will be present throughout the venue, including areas away from the main stage
- ◆ If your child is sensitive to sound, lighting or crowds, we recommend bringing earmuffs, taking breaks when needed and moving through the event at a pace that feels comfortable for your family

Peak crowds typically occur during the 30 minutes Miniraves Feature Show at 1pm

MINIRAVES

Rave style Environment

Miniraves is presented in a rave-style format. While family focused, the atmosphere remains energetic and immersive, with crowd movement, music and production elements active throughout the event.

What to Expect

- ◆ Busy walkways throughout the venue
- ◆ A lively, visually driven main stage and dancefloor
- ◆ Sound levels professionally managed and set below standard music event levels

Mainstage Moments

- ◆ Inflatables released and moved through the crowd
 - ◆ Flashing visuals and lighting effects
 - ◆ Balloon drops, confetti/streamer bursts, sparklers and CO₂ effects

MINIRAVES

The Mainstage Experience

The main stage is the heart of Miniraves and the core focus of the event.

Set within Café del Mar's open-air beach club environment, the mainstage blends into the venue's oceanfront setting, creating a unique daytime dancefloor experience.

All other activities are designed to complement the mainstage and can be enjoyed at your own pace throughout the event.
